AMUSEMENTS.

A GEORGIA CHILD ASSASSIN. A Ten Year Old Colored Boy who Wants to Kill Out His Race-Three Attempts [From the Forsyth (Ga.) Advertiser,]

About a month since a young negro boy, hving on the farm of Mr. Foster Shi, near Colaparchee, in Monroe county, named Albert Battle, was arassault with intent to murder. He is said to be ten or twelve years of age.

He took up two negro children (boys), aged respectively four and six years, and whipped them severely. It is said that in this his mother assisted him, holding the children while he whipped them. The oldest one of the boys succeeded in escaping and ran off. This young scoundrel then attempted to drown the other child in a creek, but was prevented.

But the culmination of his villany was reached just two weeks since in an attempt to MURDER OUTRIGHT a small negro giri, three years of age, the child of Peter Myrick. The mother of the child was sick, and allowed her to go to Mr. Taylor's house to amuse herself playing with the children there. At noon, when she started to go home to dinner, she went by the house where Albert lives, thinking perhaps she would find her mother there. Albert offered to go home with her and assist her in getting over fences and rough places. She assented and they started off together. When they had proceeded only a short distance he picked up a rock, and, striking the child on the head, brussed it considerably. He also took his knife and made severe wounds on her head. After he had done this he drazged her to a deep ravine and threw her into it, a distance of about fiteen feet. Although bleeding and bruised she still had strength enough to attempt to crawl out, when he seized a large pine limb and,

Striking her on the Head,
Knocked her back. He then leit her for dead and went off. In a short time after this a man, named willis, accidentally found her lying in the ditch, apparently dead. Going to the house of her parents he told them of it, and her father immediately carries he told them of it, and her father immediately carries he rhome. Although exhausted by loss of blood and stunned by the blows she regained consciousness and told her lather that Albert had cut and beat and tried to kill her.

On account of the youth of this desperado nothing has been done towards punishing him. He adds thieving to his other accomplishments, and has stolen a finely bound book and a goid watch within the last two weeks.

If he is under ten years of age he cannot be punished by law. If he is more than ten he should be severely dealt with. In the former even we recommend that he be whipped until he is as near dead as his child vietum. Who would nave thought that Georgia would rivait Massachusetts in producing such a moaster?

This young woulds be murderer avows an intention to "kill out the race." small negro girl, three years of age, the child of

SHUT UP THE UNIVERSITY. (From the Mobile Register.)

The Civil Rights bill breaks up the State University. No white man will send his son to an institution where he may be associated with negroes and, rather than let it be turned over to the black race entirely, it will be better for the General As-sembly to shut the doors or lease it out for a cot-

EXEMPT FARMS FROM TAXATION.

[From the indianapolis Sentinel.] a breath of a desire for the exemption of farms from taxation agitates the atmosphere of illinois. How would the political exempts like such a measure as that? Why shouldn't the farms be exempt from taxation as well as the national
